PART 1: THE POWERFUL IMPACT OF HIGHLY ENGAGED BOARDS

1. Wanted: Lifelong Learners 2
   Would you trust a surgeon who stopped learning?

2. Ask the Gold Standard Question 6
   A “pruning moment” can improve your board meetings.

3. Guarding Your Pastor’s Soul 10
   Senior pastor moral failures are devastating to churches. Wise boards invest time—up front—to ensure the pastor’s soul is not neglected.

4. What Could Possibly Go Wrong? 17
   Prepare your board now for the possibility of future accusations and investigations.

PART 2: BOARDROOM TOOLS AND TEMPLATES

5. Do Unwritten Board Policies Really Exist? 24
   Can’t find that 10-year-old policy? You need a BPM.

13. Caution! Understand the Governance Pendulum Principle
You have limited time to act when the pendulum oscillates in a positive direction.

14. Be Intentional About Your First 30 Minutes
Does your board meeting need a refresh—so you experience holy moments more frequently?

PART 5: BOARDROOM BLOOPERS

15. Do Not Interrupt!
Don’t assume board members know how to listen.

16. The Bully in the Church Boardroom
God, the pastor, the board chair, and other board members must neutralize the board bully.

17. Don’t Be Late—or Annoying!
What’s worse than fingernails on a chalkboard? A boisterous board member at a prayer meeting.

PART 6: BOARDROOM TIME-WASTERS, TROUBLE-MAKERS, AND TRUTH-TELLERS

18. Never Throw Red Meat on the Board Table
Boards need advance preparation to fully address complex issues.

19. Alert! The ER Factor Causes Value Extraction
Beware of the ER Factor in the boardroom—ego and rivalry.
20. Apply for a Staff Position and You Can Deal With That Issue!
Help board members not to cross the line into operational details.

21. Back Off the Ledge of Dysfunctional Mayhem
When dysfunction reigns, healthy board members head for the door.

22. Big Rocks, Pebbles, and Sand
Church boards have a natural gravitational pull toward issues that should be reserved for the church staff.

PART 7: BOARDROOM BEST PRACTICES

23. Pastor Pay—It’s About More Than Just Money
Getting the compensation-setting process right must be a priority.

24. How Many Board Members Are Present in Your Boardroom?
It’s more than just answering the roll call.

25. Address Absentee Board Member Syndrome
There are three unhealthy ways that many church boards respond to empty chairs at board meetings.

26. Before the Board Meeting
Collaborate, then wisely build the board meeting agenda.

PART 8: BOARDROOM WORST PRACTICES

27. Defending Risks Everywhere Is Not a Strategic Plan
You must discuss the risk elephant in the boardroom.

28. Where Two or Three Are Gathered on Social Media . . .
Conflicts of interest always sound more questionable on the internet and social media.

29. Keeping the Boardroom Afloat
Are too many staff causing the boardroom to capsize?

30. 7 Ways to Avoid a Financial Train Wreck
Financial derailment of a church is usually a collective failure, but the finger almost always points back to the governing board.

PART 9: BUILDING A 24/7 BOARD CULTURE

31. Watch Out for Boards Asleep at the Wheel
Golden opportunities are missed when a board’s eyes are wide shut.

32. Loose Lips Sink the Boardroom Ship
What happens in the boardroom must stay in the boardroom.

33. “Good Is the Enemy of Great”
When great board experiences end, they should be lamented.
34. Break Bread, Not Relationships
Building a 24/7 healthy board culture takes time.
Don’t skimp on meals or relationships.

35. Common Misconceptions of Board Members
Understanding board member myths can lead to improved governing effectiveness.

36. You Made Me Better Than I Was
Church board experiences should leave all participants better than they were.

PART 10: BOARDS THAT LEAD

37. Is Your Board Color-Blind to Hazardous Condition Signs?
What color is your boardroom flag?

38. Leverage the 80/20 Rule in the Boardroom
Invest 80% of your board work on future ministry opportunities—not rehashing the past.

39. Don’t Stretch Credulity with BHAGs and Stretch Goals
The actual achievement of audacious goals is very uncommon.

40. A Board Prayer
“Dear God . . . Grant us the joy of arriving at adjournment closer to one another because we are closer to You.”
Assessing your board’s performance is the first step to improving it.
